Chapter 1 by Cryptozoological

I awoke to a blinding white light, it was pain I could feel this. I wiggled my fingers and moved my hands, I noticed a burning sensation in my throat and felt like there was a stinging for everything that came in contact with my skin, I felt different, people were behind glass I was watching them, the traveled around and then disappeared into white, I had things around me though. "Ugh welcome... I guess, another unfortunate soul to be tormented.." A lighter, quieter voice echoed from the other side of the room. As the stopped speaking a high pitched ringing pierced my ears. My eyes came into focus, I had nothing on. I was bare...

A white floor, white walls, glass with people wearing white on the other side with a table in the middle of my room shared by one other. She crept over to me, "How are you, I am being A310, Age 19 and you are?"

I looked confused, I just remember, wait no I don't "I uhr, don't remembler my name... But I think ai am 19 asiwell..." I jumbled words together it sounded like a mess.

"Oh that is just the sleep water they put on you upon transportation... My father who was previously in here... Tried to escape, I wonder what happened to him?"

I was shocked what did she mean escape? She was human just like I then a bright red light appeared with a duet of barking sirens.

"Escort all Test subjects out of labs A-N and into Bio-hazardous containment." A message repeated multiple times until I was shot by something I looked at my arm to see a purple blinking light she held my hand. And a squad of soldier stormed our room. "What is.." Darkness...
